

Biographical Information

Oussama Rafic Kabbani

2012	Chairman and Partner, Millennium Development International Holdings
2007 - 2012	Vice Chairman -Millennium Development International Holdings
2007 -	Chairman and Managing Director -Millennium Development sal, Beirut
2007 -09	Executive Director -Saraya Development Group, Amman & Dubai
2007 -10	Board Member -Saraya Bandar Jissah, Oman
2002-007	Managing Director -Millennium Development sal, Beirut
1993-002	Division Manager, Town Planning and Urban Management Division, Solidere, Beirut
1988-92	Senior Urban Designer -Boston Redevelopment Authority, Boston.
1984-86	Architect, Al-Mohandessoun Consultants, Beirut,

Mr. Kabbani holds a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Beirut Arab University and a Masters in Urban Design with distinction from Harvard Graduate School of Design. He has jointly received in 1992 the American Institute of Architects Award of Excellence in Urban on behalf of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, as well as the Citation of Progressive Architecture Magazine. He received the Hanover World Expo Gold Medal in 2000 on Behalf of Solidere.

Mr. Kabbani is the author of "Prospects for Lebanon: the Reconstruction of Beirut" published by the Center for Lebanese studies, Oxford, UK in 1992, and has articles published in "Reconstruction of War Torn Cities" proceedings of an international seminar by the IUA in Beirut in 1997, and in "Projecting Beirut, Episodes in the Construction and Reconstruction of the Modern City", published by Harvard GSD in 1997, and in the Spanish magazine Cuadernos issue 229.

Mr. Kabbani taught at the Boston Architecture Center, and gave lectures and conferences on the reconstruction of Beirut in the US, England, Venice, Saudi Arabia, and Beirut.